Press Release for District Championship Meet on 1/31

On Friday, January 31, the Austin High Swimming and Diving teams competed in the UIL Districts 26-6A Swimming Championships held at the Round Rock ISD Natatorium. The Maroons finished in 5th place in the team standings in both the girls' and boys' team scores. On the boys side, the Maroons were led by senior Kole Esselstyn who was the only swimmer from AHS to advance to Regionals in both of his individual events and in two relays. On the girls' side, they were led by senior Madeleine Griebel who was on all three of the girls' relays and helped all three earn a spot at the regional championships. The Maroons swam new personal best times in 25 of their 50 individual races.
